LEGACY OF MEN

In February 2012, SafeHaven hosts the 4th annual Legacy of Men Breakfast to benefit our organization's domestic violence prevention and intervention programs serving the Fort Worth Dallas Metroplex since 1976. Each year, the Legacy of Men Award is given to a local gentleman who has demonstrated a firm commitment to ending men's violence against women. The breakfast is a significant source of funding for our programs, drawing a crowd of 450 and raising in excess of $40,000 in 2011.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

TONY PORTER

Tony Porter is an educator and activist who has worked in the social justice arena for over twenty years. He is nationally recognized for his effort to end men's violence against women. Tony is the original visionary and co-founder behind A CALL TO MEN: The National Association of Men and Women Committed to Ending Violence Against Women. He is the author of "Well Meaning Men...Breaking Out of the Man Box - Ending Violence Against Women" and the visionary for the book, NFL Dads Dedicated to Daughters.

Tony's message of accountability is welcome and supported by many grassroots and established organizations. He works with numerous domestic and sexual violence programs, the National Football League, the National Basketball Association and colleges and universities around the country.

Tony is an international lecturer for the U.S. State Department having done extensive work in the Democratic Republic of the Congo. Tony has served as a consultant to The White House Commission on Violence Against Women and Girls and the Department of Justice Office of Violence Against Women. He has also been a guest presenter for the United Nations' Commission on the Status of Women.

ABOUT SAFEHAVEN

During SafeHaven's distinguished 35-year history, we have represented a beacon of hope for women and children while remaining true to our challenging mission: "To end domestic violence through safety, support, prevention and social change." As a leader in the domestic violence field, SafeHaven operates a full continuum of specialized programs, utilizes community volunteers and runs a successful resale store, Berry Good Buys. SafeHaven's two shelters in Arlington and Fort Worth have a combined 174 beds, making SafeHaven one of the largest shelters in Texas.

IN 2010, SAFEHAVEN

- Answered more than 55,000 hotline calls. This is on track to reach 60,000 calls in 2011.
- Protected over 2,300 adult and child victims in our two shelters
- Served more than 3,300 other clients seeking counseling and legal support through our two resource centers.
- Educated 31,000 individuals about domestic violence.

PREVIOUS LEGACY OF MEN SPONSORS

Our generous community supporters made the 2011 Legacy of Men Breakfast possible. With the help of these sponsors, in previous years SafeHaven was able to raise more than $40,000 annually for services that benefit survivors of domestic violence. Continued support allows our staff to remain unwavering in its dedication to helping the women and children we serve create safer lives for themselves.
